- At all stages during the preparation and training of Competition Horses, welfare must take precedence over all other demands. This includes good Horse management, training methods, farriery and tack, and transportation.

- Horse and Athletes must be fit, competent and in good health before they are allowed to compete. This encompasses medication use, surgical procedures that threaten welfare or safety, pregnancy in mares and misuse of aids.
- Events must not prejudice Horse welfare. This involves paying careful attention to the Competition Areas, ground surfaces, weather conditions, stabling, site safety and fitness of the Horse for onward travel after the event.
- Every effort must be made to ensure that Horses receive proper attention after they have competed and that they are treated humanely when their Competition careers are over. This covers proper veterinary care, Competition injuries, euthanasia and retirement.
- The FEI urges all involved with the sport to attain the highest levels of education in their Area of expertise.

A full copy of this Code can be obtained from the FEI's website: www.fei.org.

Any such changes must be notified to all Athletes and Officials as soon as possible and they must be reported to the FEI by the Foreign Judge.

7.5 Cancellation of the event¹²²

Subject to the unanimous agreement of the President of the Ground Jury, Technical Delegate and President of the Veterinary Committee in consultation with the Organiser, a Competition (either before or during) can be postponed and/or cancelled, not only due to force majeure, catastrophic occurrences, extreme weather conditions but also for non-compliance with FEI Rules and in specific situations where the welfare or safety of the Horses, Athletes, Officials or the public is compromised.

7.6 Liability & Insurance

Equestrian sports involve inherent dangerous risks. 7.6.1 Athletes, Owners, Support Personnel

7.6.1.1 Personal accident and health insurance

It is the responsibility of the Athlete/Owner/Support Personnel to ensure that they have adequate personal accident insurance in place to cover the participation at the Event and in particular to insure against any personal injury or medical expenses arising from an accident, injury or illness which may occur at the Event.

The Athlete/Owner/Support Personnel should check with their National Federation to confirm if the National Federation's insurance policy (if any) covers personal accidents and/or illnesses which may occur when attending/participating in the Event.

If the National Federation does not have a personal accident/health insurance policy or if the National Federation's insurance policy does not cover personal accident or health claims, then the Athlete/Owner/Support Personnel should obtain an own personal accident and health insurance policy to cover the attendance/participation at the Event.

7.6.1.2 Personal property insurance

Athletes/Owners/Support Personnel should also ensure that they are insured against property loss, theft or damage, which may occur at the Event. Again, the advice is to check with the National Federation to confirm if they have an insurance policy in place, which would cover in case of such property loss, theft or damage. If not, then Athletes/Owners/Support Personnel should obtain their own personal property insurance to cover such situations.

7.6.1.3 Third party liability insurance

The Chefs de Mission, Chefs d'Equipe, Athletes, Owners, trainers, Team veterinarians and their accompaniments are personally responsible for damages to third parties caused by them or their employees, Support Personnel, their agents or their Horses. The FEI and the OC will NOT be responsible for any damage caused to third parties by the Athletes/Owners, their employees, Support Personnel, their agents or their Horses.

In the event of a slightly negligent breach of material contractual obligations, the liability of the OC shall be limited to the foreseeable typical damage.

The above limitations of liability also apply in favour of the legal representatives and vicarious agents of the OC. Otherwise, liability is excluded.

7.6.2.3 Release from liability

The Athlete and the Horse Owner are jointly and severally liable to the OC to indemnify the OC against all claims of third parties, in particular visitors of the event and other Athletes, regardless of fault, at first request, arising from the fact that a human being is killed or the body or health of a human being or an object is damaged by a Horse of the Athlete or the Horse Owner or by a person commissioned by the Athlete or the Horse Owner.

7.6.2.4 Choice of law

The liability and indemnity agreement shall be governed by German law.
